Product Description

Holographic display cabinet is a new technology of three-dimensional imaging suspended in the air, also known as three-dimensional phantom imaging. Holographic technology is used in combination when setting up holographic display cabinets. It displays products in the same space in real time by superimposing real-life modeling and virtual images. It is vivid, unpredictable, realistic, and has dazzling three-dimensional special effects. It can be viewed in 360 degrees, and can achieve a fake-real effect. There is no need to bring the product to the exhibition, and it can attract people's attention through colorful and vivid images.

Scope of application:
1. Used to display high-end and exquisite products such as jewelry, watches, cosmetics and digital products.
2. High-end hotels and high-end clubs are used to display corporate LOGOs, famous wines and cigarettes.
3. Real estate apartment display, theme park display, cultural center display, museum antique display, etc.
4. Virtual hosts, product launches and other places display.
